

CROFTON PARISH COUNCIL

STANDING ORDERS 2017

1. MEETINGS

Meetings of the Council shall be held on the second Tuesday of each month, except August when no meeting will be held.

Meetings of the council shall be held at an appropriate venue, at 19:00 unless the council otherwise decides at a previous meeting.

In an election year the Annual Parish Council Meeting shall be held on or within 14 days following the day on which the councillors elected take office.

2. CHAIR OF THE MEETING

The person presiding at a meeting may exercise all powers and duties of the Chair in relation to the conduct of the meeting.

3. PROPER OFFICER

Where a statute, regulation or order confers functions or duties on the proper officer of the Council in the following cases, he or she shall be the Clerk:-

To receive declarations of acceptance of office.

To receive and record notices disclosing pecuniary interests.

To receive and retain plans and documents.

To sign notices and other documents on behalf of the Council.

To receive copies of bye-laws made by a District Council.

To certify copies of bye-laws made by Council.

To sign summonses to attend meetings of the Council.

In any other case the proper officer shall be the Clerk.

To receive and record notices disclosing interests at meetings

To keep proper records for all Council meetings.

4. QUORUM

Five members or one third of the total membership, whichever is the greater, shall be required for a quorum at meetings of the Parish Council.

If a quorum is not present or if during a meeting the number of councillors present (not including those debarred by reason of a declared interest), falls below the required quorum, from that point no further business shall be transacted, with all untransacted business being carried forward to the next scheduled meeting or at an extra ordinary meeting.

5. VOTING

Members shall vote by show of hands, unless a ballot vote is requested and approved by a show of hands vote.

The Chair in the case of an equality of votes may give a casting vote

If the person presiding at the Annual Parish Council Meeting would have ceased to be a member of the Council but for statutory provisions which preserve the membership of the Chair and Vice-Chair until the end of their term in office, they may not give an original vote in an election for Chair

The person presiding must give a casting vote whenever there is an equality of votes in an election for Chair.

6. ORDER OF BUSINESS

In an election year councillors should execute Declarations of Acceptance of Office in each other's presence, or of a proper officer previously authorised by the Council to take such declaration before the annual meeting commences.

At each Annual Parish Meeting the Chair shall present a report.

At each Annual Parish Council Meeting the first business shall be;

To elect a Chair

To receive the Chair's declaration of Acceptance of office or, if not received, to decide when it shall be received.

To decide when any declarations of acceptance of office, which have not been received as provided by law, shall be received.

To elect a Vice-Chair.

To appoint members to working parties

At every meeting other than the Annual Parish Meeting the first business shall be to appoint a Chairman if the Chair and Vice-Chair are absent.

In every other year not later than the Annual Parish Council meeting members shall review the pay and conditions of service of the Clerk and existing employees.

After the first business has been considered, the order of business shall be as stated in the summons.

A motion to vary the order of business on the grounds of urgency, may be proposed by the Chair.

- x. To exclude the public.
- xi. To silence or eject from the meeting a member named for misconduct.
- xii. To invite a member having an interest in the subject matter under a debate to remain.
- xiii. To give the consent of the Council where such a consent is required by these Standing Orders.

8. CORRECTIONS TO MINUTES

Discussion shall take place upon the Minutes concerning their accuracy. Corrections to the Minutes must be initialled by the Chair.

9. DISORDERLY CONDUCT

No member shall at a meeting persistently disregard the ruling of the Chair, wilfully obstruct business, or behave irregularly, offensively, improperly or in such a manner as to scandalise the Council or bring it into contempt or ridicule.

The Chairman may suspend the meeting or take such further steps as may be reasonably necessary to enforce them.

10. VOTING ON APPOINTMENTS

Where more than two persons have been nominated for any position to be filled by the Council and of the votes given there is not an absolute majority in favour of one person, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken, and so on until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. The Chair in the case of an equality of votes, may give a casting vote.

11. DISCUSSIONS AND RESOLUTIONS AFFECTING EMPLOYEES OF THE COUNCIL

If at a meeting there arises any question relating to the appointment, conduct, promotion, dismissal, salary or conditions of service, of any person employed by the Council, it shall not be considered until the Council has decided whether or not the public and/or the employee shall be excluded.

12. WORKING PARTY'S

The Council may at the Annual Parish Council Meeting appoint a working party and at any other time appoint such other working party as are necessary, but subject to any statutory provision in that behalf:-
